A pinning ceremony was held for 15 graduates of the Licensed Practical Nursing program of Douglas MacArthur State Technical College on November 28th at the Student Center with family and friends attending. Invocation was given by Mrs. Evelyn Bess, Communications Instructor at MacArthur Tech. Raymond Chisum, Dean of Instruction gave the welcoming address to guests and students followed by the president's address by E. C. Nevin, President of MacArthur Technical College. He reminded them of General Douglas MacArthur's last speech to the cadets at West Point and emphasized three strengths they would need in the working world of practical nurses, "duty, honor, and country." The four nursing instructors, Mrs. Joan Simmons, Mrs. Gloria Turner, Mrs. Cythia Taylor, and Mrs. Clarice Gunter led the group in the Nightingale Pledge. Deer Hunting At Zion

December 10. Both of these Deer hunting results were pretty light at Zior Chapel this past week. We only bagged two, with Mitch Maddox getting both of these. On Sunday, December 9, he got his first one and he got the other one and he got the other one on Monday.

December 10. Both of these young bucks were spikes.

Everyone should tighten up because Mitch has already gotton three this year. Go get'em Mitch.
